FROM WASHINGTON.

The Civil Rights Bill and Senate---Maximilian and Secretary Seward---The Forthcoming Veto---Proclamation of the President---Senator Stockton's Case---Suit against General Terry, &c.,

We give below the most interesting news received. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes the following:

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

The Republicans have generally thought that the President would sign the civil rights bill; and moreover, if he did not, they were quite certain of carrying it over the President's head. For the sake of this triumph they would prefer a veto. The twenty-five votes in the Senate belonging to the Republicans proper, and the seven Radicals now called advanced Republicans, making thirty-two votes, would possibly be two-thirds of the whole number cast. The minority vote would be nine Democrats and five conservative Republicans.

REMOVAL OF CAPT. M. F. MAURY.

It is understood that Maximilian has revoked the portion of his decree to which Mr. Seward took exception, and that Captain M. F. Maury has been removed from office.

EXPECTED VETO---PEACE PROCLAMATION.

The idea is generally conceded that a veto of the civil rights bill may be expected to-day---(Monday.)

In an inner Republican quarter it was given out Saturday that a peace proclamation may soon be expected.

SENATOR STOCKTON'S CASE.

The case of Senator Stockton occupied the Senate Saturday for four hours. The speech of Mr. Trumbull, the Chairman of the Judiciary committee, was one of the most powerful arguments of the session. The vote was not taken until five o'clock, and the greatest excitement prevailed, as it was known it would be very close. The result, however, was favorable to Senator Stockton.

SUIT FOR $10,000 AGAINST GENERAL TERRY.

A gentleman of Washington having sued General Terry, commanding in Virginia, for $10,000 damages, in the United States Courts of the District of Columbia, for an injury which he and his family suffered while temporarily sojourning last summer on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, an attempt is now making to procure a special act of Congress to prevent a trial.—The proposed bill was drafted by the counsel of General Terry, expressly to fit the case.

THE INCOME TAX.

It is now so certain that no action will be taken by Congress amending the law concerning the income tax, in season to affect the next assessment, that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has commenced the preparation of blanks and instructions under the existing law. Assessors and assistant assessors will be instructed to prepare immediately for the assessment.

GENERAL GRANT GOING TO EUROPE.

Lieutenant-General Grant is shortly to sail for Europe, and the Navy Department are now looking up a vessel for his accommodation.—Captain Ammen, an old schoolmaster of the General's, and now of the iron-clad Miantonoma, is to be transferred to the man-of-war that conveys the military chieftain across the ocean. The Miantonoma is ordered off for a short but important cruise in adjacent waters.

DISQUALIFICATION TO HOLD OFFICE.

The House Judiciary Committee to-day authorized the Chairman to report an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, preventing any person who held office under the Confederate Government from holding any office under the United States.

AFRICANS IN SENATE GALLERY.

An effort is to be made in the Senate to classify the auditors who visit the galleries. Reserved seats for the members of Congress and their wives and families are demanded by some of the better-halves of Senators, whose olfactories are offended by the African aroma. Besides, even when the colored population are kept separate from the white folks, it is found that the canaille, or common white people, mix up among the Senatorial families, so that it is difficult to distinguish the commonalty from the aristocracy. The ladies complain, and the Senators therefore request the Sergeant-at-arms to classify folks, but that officer don't feel authorized to comply with the request, so says Senator Riddle, who offered a resolution to-day, directing a place to be set apart for the distingue. Somebody objected to the present consideration of the subject, and the resolution goes over until Monday.

THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

There are already at least five hundred applicants for appointments as United States Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1867, many of them parties interested in machines and implements which are to be on exposition, and not one in twenty able to understand or to speak a word of the French language.

JUDGE C. C. CLAY.

It may satisfy public curiosity to learn the reason why Clement C. Clay is kept in durance at Fortress Monroe. He is confined there on the charge of advising and being accessory to the raiding plots concocted in Canada during the war. A considerable portion of his correspondence on this subject is in the possession of the Government, and some of it may be published soon.

CHOLERA AT BREST AND CHERBOURG.

The Department of State has received advices from our consulate at Havre, France, dated February 17, 1866, giving a history of the cholera as it existed at Brest and Cherbourg. At Brest, out of the population of 70,000 souls, exclusive of the troops and sailors, 230 deaths occurred daily; whereas the average number of deaths each day, when in ordinary health, was seven.

At Cherbourg, since November 7th, 1865, the day on which the first case of cholera occurred, there have been 199 deaths. These are principally amongst the poorer classes—among the troops the cholera has not yet appeared.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The physicians report the condition of Senator Foot to be much improved, with fair prospects of an early recovery of health. Senator Dixon, although not considered entirely out of danger, seems to be convalescent.

The United States Consul at Sheffield, England, writes to the department of State, under date of March 6th, 1866, that the steady increase of mortality among the cattle is creating a serious alarm. It has now extended to the sheep, which is a proof of its contagious character.

The United States Consul at Liverpool informs the State Department, by letter dated March 9th, 1866, that all the steamers and emigrant ships leaving that port for the United States are filled with emigrants. Shipowners and others say that the emigration to the United States will be enormous, and the indications are that it will be greater this year than at any other time since we have been a nation.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadership and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL,
SEATON GALES. } Editors

Wednesday, March 28, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

First of April.

On this day, we shall reluctantly discontinue the Sentinel to all who have not paid. We do not do this because we doubt the integrity of any one, or because we think our friends will not pay us, but we are compelled to this course from sheer necessity. Every thing we use we are compelled to pay the cash for; hence, we are obliged to do business strictly on the cash principle, after the 31st day of the present month.

We find that, from haste or other causes, errors have occurred on our mail books. In all cases we are glad to rectify errors. If any error, occurs, write us at once, and we will correct it promptly.

Hon. A. H. Jones.

We cheerfully admit to our columns, to-day, the defence of Mr. Jones, in reply to the charges made against him in his District, to which we alluded some days ago. We will not do injustice to Mr. Jones or any one else. We received our information indirectly from persons from the West who were deemed reliable, and hence felt it our duty to call attention to it. We are glad he denies the charges; and he is justly severe upon the person who clandestinely obtained his views and then misrepresented him.

The Confederacy is dead, and there is no propriety in the contrasts which men, who call themselves Union men, are so fond of making at its expense, touching the exercise of arbitrary power. While we were opposed to some of the measures of the Confederate government, and the manner of the execution of those measures, yet the actors are no more liable to the charge of tyranny and inhumanity, than will be found in the history of all governments in a time of war under military rule. Those who are so fond of ventilating the charge of tyranny against those to whom they are opposed, will always find the same spirit exhibited by themselves under similar circumstances.

Major Gee's Trial.

This trial has, so far, occupied twenty days. The time has been taken up by the prosecution, and the testimony in behalf of the government has not yet been closed. The Court adjourned on Monday last, to be resumed on Monday next. It is understood that the recess is occasioned by the absence of witnesses for the prosecution.

The Judge Advocate has exhibited great industry and perseverance in the prosecution.—If Maj. Gee is guilty of the charges alleged, (which his high character does not allow us to believe,) he will not fail of being convicted from any delinquency on the part of the Judge Advocate. Our time has been so occupied otherwise, we have not been able to follow up the testimony; hence, we are not prepared to express an opinion fully as to the evidence brought against Maj. Gee. We are, however, inclined to the opinion, that there is yet lacking any clear proof of intentional guilt on the part of the accused. Great suffering on the part of the prisoners is palpable. We remember that, during the period of their stay at Salisbury, their condition excited much anxiety in the mind of the Executive of the State, as well as with others; but it was unavoidable. The condition of Gen. Lee's army was nearly as bad.

The number of witnesses on behalf of the defence is large, and, so far as we have conversed with them, their testimony will exculpate Maj. Gee from all blame.

It is due to Col. Holland, who has conducted the defence chiefly, to say that he has exhibited singular ability in the management of the case. His readiness, his learning in the law, and his thorough conviction of the innocence of his client, justify the zeal and energy with which he has conducted the defence. His reputation at home, in Florida, as a counseller and advocate, will not suffer from his labors in the case of Maj. Gee.

"We Shall See."

We would respectfully enquire of the Standard, what has become of its correspondent, who promised such terrible disclosures over the above portentous signature. He proclaimed his personal knowledge of the existence of a secret organization to subvert the government, and we dared him to come out with the facts. Yet he is as silent as the grave. Again we repeat that, if he has any such information, and refuses to make it known to the proper authorities, he is himself a traitor. We predict that we shall never hear from him more. But, we shall see.

The Loan Bill.

This bill, which was modified after its rejection on the 16th inst., passed the lower House of Congress on the 23rd. The modified bill prohibits the retiring of the currency from circulation as rapidly as the Secretary of the Treasury designed. The effect of the Secretary's plan was producing a panic. It was exerting a happy influence upon the value of greenbacks, but the contraction was too rapid for commercial comfort.

N. C. Bonds.—We are glad to find that North Carolina old sixes are on the advance. They had run down below 75, when the Legislature came to the rescue. After the passage of the funding bill they began to rise. They now command in New York 83½ to 84. U. S. sixes in New York are quoted at 104½.

"The fact that they were non-combatants saved their lives; but it was considered good sport in this State, in 1864 and 1865, to shoot and hang Union men, under orders from Richmond and Raleigh. Our neighbors of the Sentinel approved all this. The Junior agitated and held meetings in the army in Virginia, to denounce the peace men at home in North Carolina, and to draw down upon them mob law, the rope, and the rifle; and the Senior published the proceedings of these meetings in his paper, sustained Mr. Davis and Gov. Vance in all their cruelties, and regularly implored the God of battles whom he worshipped, to rain the fires of vengeance on all the peace men, and on all the enemies of the Confederate government."—Standard.

Our neighbor, a few days ago, threatened to hoist us. We were not, therefore, prepared for the "milk and water" severity with which it serves us. If our neighbor did not draw upon its imagination and its proclivity to perversion, we should certainly have no cause whatever to notice it. It has forced itself into so untenable a position, and withal has become so feeble in its attacks, that any attempt at reply is rendered unnecessary, but for its misrepresentation of facts.

The above short extract contains several glaring misstatements. The Editors of the Sentinel never heard of any orders from Richmond and Raleigh, "to shoot and hang Union men." Nor did the Editors of the Standard. Orders were issued by the military authorities to arrest deserters. Many were apprehended, and many of them testified that they were induced to desert by the latter-day teachings of the Standard. If any man has been shot or hung in North Carolina, for his Union principles, we have not heard of it; nor has the Standard.

Hence it is not true that the Editors of the Sentinel "approved all this." Nor did the Junior agitate and hold meetings in the army in Virginia to denounce peace men or to draw down the mob, the rope and the rifle upon them. He disapproved the object of the so-called peace meetings, because they were meetings which promoted discord and division, instead of peace; but he considered those engaged in them as mistaken and unwise in their course, but not deserving of punishment. The Senior did not publish the proceedings of the army meetings in his paper, but an address which he believed was designed to do good.—The Senior sustained the authorities of the de facto government under which he was living, to the extent that all good citizens were bound to do, and he especially sustained Mr. Davis and Gov. Vance in protecting the Editor of the Standard, when threatened by an excited soldiery because of his editorial course. It is known, that, but for the determined purpose of the Confederate and State authorities to maintain inviolate the freedom of the press, such was the bitterness created against him in the army by his course, the Editor of the Standard could scarcely have escaped the most violent punishment. To our personal knowledge, he owes his exemption from personal injury, to the efforts of the State authorities and those whom he now denounces.

As to the Senior ever imploring the God of Battles "to rain the fires of vengeance on all the peace men, and on all the enemies of the Confederate government," it is simply false.—The peace men were misled by the Standard, and we never felt vindictive towards them.

"It (the Confederate flag) is in the dust, never again to be unfurled, and out of respect to the misguided but gallant men who died under its folds, &c."

One would have supposed, from the recent tone of the Standard, that there was imminent danger of the Confederate flag's being "again unfurled." We have had so many intimations and assertions from it of the existence of extensive secret organizations, inimical to the government, and ready, whenever opportunity shall present, to assume the form of overt hostility, that the majority of the "strait-sect" readers of the Standard doubtless fully believe that the Confederacy is still in existence, and its flag ready to be once more "unfurled." We are glad that the Standard at last admits, that such talk, on its part, is all bosh.

But the Standard speaks of the "misguided" men who died under its folds. No one did so much, or more, to "misguide" them than the Editor of the Standard. Who else but he boasted that he was the first to "denounce the tyranny of Lincoln" and invite the people to arms? Who else but he said that the solution of all our difficulties was to be found in the five letters "F-I-G-H-T?" Who else but he, as late as the winter of 1863, urged those "misguided" men to "prosecute the war, with renewed vigor, and whip and drive the enemy from our soil?" And who but he, at a still later period, implored them "to whip and shatter the armies of Meade and Grant?"

To have urged these gallant men to the field, where so much blood was spilled, and so many valuable lives sacrificed, and now to turn around and brand them as dupes, speaks badly, very badly, for our neighbor.

Gold closed in New York, to-day, at 1 26½.

There were sales of Cotton, on the 24th, at 40 cents.

From the National Intelligencer.

Remarkable Consequences of the Absence of the Freedmen's Bureau.

MILTON, N. C., March 12, 1866.

To the Editors of the National Intelligencer:

Our people heartily endorse the President in his efforts to maintain the Constitution and restore the Union. Our citizens have gone hard to work, and are trying to make the best of the situation. There is no ill will existing between them and the freedmen, (who, as a general thing, have gone to work, and are doing as well as could be expected.) As an evidence of this fact, I may mention that our mails are carried by a freedman, (the only colored contractor in the Union,) appointed upon the recommendation of our citizens. We have also a large freedmen's school, taught by two free negroes whose father was a citizen of the State, (made one by special act of the Legislature,) the most extensive cabinet-maker in it, and a slave-owner.—All this, too, in a town that has never had a Bureau office in it, (except one Sunday,) nor any troops stationed here. Yours, W. M. W.

Editorial Chit-Chat.

—The Roman Catholic Test Oath in Great Britain, which practically debarred every conscientious member of that sect from any office of trust or honor under the British Government, has been abolished in the House of Commons, five members out of three hundred only dissenting.

It is a pity that our legislators can not learn a lesson from the enlightened liberality of this British policy. Test oaths are subversive of the principles of free government, and encroachments on the liberties of our people. No government that boasts itself Republican should be disgraced by them.

—Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, is improving, and we record the evidences of returning reason with pleasure. In a recent letter, he advances the following commendable sentiment:

"I think that the same body of voters in each State who carried it out into rebellion must bring it back again into loyalty. Any other 'reconstruction' is dangerous and delusive."

This is not only liberal, but it is common sense; and, for that reason, it upsets the assumption on which a small handful of persons in the Southern States base their peculiar and arrogant claims to the administration of our affairs. The very fact that they declare themselves, as their exponent in this State, the Standard, has repeatedly done, of late, out of sympathy with the great mass of our people, would deprive their acts of that presumption of the popular concurrence, which would alone give them any "reconstructive" value.

—Sincerity in the past is, to men of honor, the best and surest guarantee of sincerity in the future. Those who now boast that they dissembled, during the past four years, may well be suspected of dissimulation now, and of being ready to dishonor their present loud protestations, if personal interest should invite. Those who have been honest and true in former professions have no need to solicit confidence in their future loyalty.

—The New York World justly observes that one of the most formidable dangers menacing our form of Government is the broad interpretation now being given to the words "necessary and proper" in the Constitution, in order to justify and cover usurpation after usurpation by the present Rump Congress.—The application of the system of interpretation of these words now being made to justify the Freedmen's Bureau bill, the Civil Rights bill, the Reconstruction policy, is clearly intended to substitute in the Constitution a supposed usefulness or propriety for the necessity expressed and contemplated in that instrument; and which, in fact, destroys every limitation of the power of Congress. Carry out the doctrines now freely ventilated by the unscrupulous Radical leaders on the floors of both Houses of Congress, and it follows, irresistibly, that, instead of being bound by a Constitution, all the reserved powers of the people, or of the States, will be swallowed up at their pleasure, by that undefined discretion; in a word, that the Constitution itself, so far as respects a limitation of powers, is, by such a doctrine, completely annihilated.

—The ladies of Winchester have made another appeal in behalf of the Confederate dead that lie upon the battle-fields of Winchester.

The bodies of these brave men are scattered over a space of ground twelve miles in radius; the rude mounds of earth which cover them are fast becoming trodden down by the foot of man and beast, and ere long very many of the resting places of the Southern soldiers will become utterly unknown, unless the bodies are removed and proper interment given them. This should certainly be done. The men who fought so bravely, and fell so nobly, should never be forgotten by those for whom they died. Justice, gratitude, and even common humanity demand that all that is left of the departed should receive all of honor and respect that the living can bestow.

In this connection, we are gratified at being able to state, that a number of the young ladies of this city propose giving a concert, at an early day, for the purpose of assisting the patriotic design of their sisters of Winchester.

President Johnson and the Connecticut Campaign.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Intelligencer of to-morrow will contain the following correspondence:

POST OFFICE, HARTFORD, CONN., March 22, 1866.

To President Johnson:

SIR: I am now engaged in publicly advocating the election of James E. English as candidate for Governor of Connecticut, a gentleman who is openly committed to the support of your veto, to the defense of the 22d of February speech, and of your policy of reconstruction, in opposition to the Disunionists of Connecticut. I am opposing the election of Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, who openly disapproved of your veto and of your 22nd of February speech, and declines to support your policy as opposed to the radical majority in Congress. If my political action is not satisfactory to you, I beg you to receive my resignation as postmaster of this city. I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant,
(Signed) E. S. CLEVELAND.

The President has returned this to Mr. Cleveland, indorsed as follows:

"Your political action in upholding my measures and policy is approved. Your resignation is therefore not accepted, but is herewith returned.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.
Executive Mansion, March 28.

Jefferson Davis.

This gentleman still remains under the same rigid course of imprisonment adopted shortly after his incarceration, which has not been relaxed in the slightest. In the evening and occasionally during the daytime, he may be seen walking around the parapet in charge of the officer of the day and a file of soldiers. Very few see him, as, in his daily walks he is taken to the most obscure portion of the fortress, and, on returning, is conducted immediately to his cell by a plank walk, which connects the balcony of Carroll Hall with the parapet.—Norfolk Virginian.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Gentlemen: My attention has by a friend just been called to an editorial in the "Daily Sentinel" of the 14th inst., in which I am most grossly misrepresened, no doubt unintentionally on your part, and I ask, in justice to myself, that this have a place in your columns.

It is charged that I "have been writing letters to the damage and inconvenience of the people of my district." * * * "It is affirmed that this same Mr. Jones has recently addressed letters to the Attorney General of the United States" * * * "representing that the mail contractors are too disloyal to be trusted—that the whole State is disloyal, and that the best thing that can be done is to break up the civil government of the State, and throw us back under a Provisional Governor—declare void the elections and of course the oaths of every man, and begin afresh to reconstruct the State!"

Every one of these charges are base falsehoods, and the affirmant, whoever he may be, and I think I have a very good idea of the gentleman, has wilfully and knowingly misrepresented me. I have never, in all my life, written or addressed a letter directly or indirectly to the Attorney General of the United States. I have never written or uttered a single sentence or sentiment in favor of placing the State under a Provisional Governor, or against the progress of civil government in the State. All my acts, writings, words, and deeds stamp with infamy the base and false charge that I represented the whole State as disloyal.

I addressed a letter to the Postmaster General, through another gentleman at Washington City, which was carefully sealed and stamped in the presence of witnesses, and was sent to Ashville to be mailed, but was broken open without my consent or that of the person to whom it was addressed. What think you of such acts as this? I deem it proper to state that the gentleman who had charge of the post office at Ashville, is not, by any means, implicated in this letter-breaking.

It was heralded all over this part of the country, that I had written, in this same letter, to the authorities at Washington to remove Gov. Worth and have a Provisional Governor appointed—a thing that I had never thought of; indeed, I have never uttered a word derogatory of Gov. Worth in any form, manner, or shape, whatever.

I now ask the parties, who are making themselves so busy in regard to this violated letter, to produce the same with my signature, and let it be published verbatim, so that the community may judge for themselves whether I have been writing letters to their damage and inconvenience, or not. When the contents of this letter become known, as it will be, I will submit to the judgment of the people.

Whilst in Washington city, I used my best endeavors to get the "test oath" so modified as to admit the people of this State to the revenue and post offices, and so as to become mail contractors, &c., but my honest efforts met with opposition from quarters where I least expected it. I am still in favor of modifying the oath. There are thousands of men who cannot take the oath, from the fact that they were compelled from circumstances to acts that bar them, as it now stands, but I am not in favor of being without mails, because we cannot get the "test oath" removed, especially when the regulations can be complied with. I am doing all that I can to promote the interests of my constituents, and, as to my ability, it is for the people of this district to judge, a large majority of whom are loyal and will judge and act for themselves.

No portion of the State is really more loyal than the Mountain District. The people of this Mountain District proved the fact by electing A. H. Jones to Congress—one who has been loyal all the time, before, during and since the war, and one who will work for the best interests of the people, with the same devotion and firmness that he has shown for the interests of the Union. Talk about ability; the people of the Mountain District have not yet forgotten, that the leaders who brought them to ruin claimed to be men of great ability, and they will not forget soon that common sense, honesty of purpose, and fidelity to the Union of their fathers, is the best ability with which their public servants can be supplied. They don't want such as violate the law of the land by plundering sealed letters. They don't want such as will copy them, knowing such to be the fact. They don't want such as will misrepresent the writer of such violated letters, nor will they have them. We will close by admonishing all such, that they should remember that they are not now living in the days of the so-called Confederacy, when such things could be done by certain parties with impunity. Breaking a sealed and stamped letter is a penitentiary crime in the United States. The public shall have more at the proper time.

ALEXANDER H. JONES.

On the return of Senator Howard (who went home to attend the funeral of his wife,) that section of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, of which he is Chairman, will submit the testimony taken concerning Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. This will include the evidence of General Lee.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN WILMINGTON.—We learn, from a private source, that a destructive conflagration occurred in Wilmington on the day before yesterday. The fire broke out on the street in the rear of St. James' Church, and nearly an entire square was consumed. Loss very heavy. We have no further particulars.

ANOTHER FIRE.—The gin house, stables and barns of Benj. C. Mayo, Esq., of Edgecombe County, were consumed by fire on Saturday last. Mr. Mayo's loss is heavy—four hundred barrels of corn, five bales of cotton, a large quantity of fodder, and a great many carts, farming implements and other articles of value. Loss about five thousand dollars.

WE see it stated in the Washington papers, that the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, of this State, has been pardoned by the President within the past week.

ROBBERY.—The Store of the Messrs. Chesson & Co., of Tarboro, was entered on Thursday night last, and robbed of a large amount of goods.

HEAVY fires have been raging in the turpentine regions near Newbern.

MAILS FOR THE WEST.—There is no mail between Morganton and Asheville. All mail matter designed for the trans-mountain country, should be sent via Lincolnton, N. C, or Greenville, S. C.

A new congregrational church was opened for service, for the first time, in Newbern, on Tuesday of last week.

The Statesville American learns that the wheat crop in that section of the State was but little damaged by the late cold spell.

Commodore Hugh Nelson Page, of Virginia, one of the oldest and most distinguished officers of the United States and Confederate States navies, is temporarily residing near Williamsburg, N. C., with his family, in reduced circumstances.

The Tarboro' Southerner is enthusiastic over an amateur Theatrical exhibition at Rocky Mount. It speaks in high terms of the display of native talent

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS :—I have been greatly surprised at the bearing and forbearance of the Sentinel towards the Standard. If the Standard had personal qualities to command the respect of the Sentinel, its conduct editorial towards the Sentinel is such as to forbid your exhibiting editorial regard or respect for it, or showing it.

The Standard perpetrates a libel upon the Sentinel, by charging that it "supported candidates for Congress, on the ground that they could not and would not take the test oath."

The Standard charges the Sentinel with treason, with harboring the diabolical feelings of an assassin. Hear the charge: The Standard says the Sentinel regrets that Messrs. Sumner and Wilson, Senators from the powerful and enlightened State of Massachusetts, "were not put a side"—"that is executed or assassinated at the close of the rebellion." The Standard is judging the feelings of the Sentinel towards Sumner and Wilson by its base feeling of assassination towards President Lincoln, when it asked "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

The Standard charged the Charlotte Times with "wanting to pay the expenses of hounding down conscripts, and putting the thumbs of poor women under the fence and penning old men, and women, and children," &c., &c. Now, Messrs. Editors, go to the State Library,—for Gov. Worth opens it to all;—consult the files of the Standard, and you will find that W. W. Holden was the first man to call for the militia to catch conscripts.

You will find he was the first man and the only man who wished to drive unprotected and defenceless women and children from their homes in the South, to join their husbands in the North, who had fled from conscription. If you can't find it there, I will lend you my files of the Standard. I have heard that the file of the Standard in the State library is not complete, but copies of it are missing.

Query: If a man would shut the doors of a library against one wishing to read the Standard, would he not more effectually put an embargo upon it, by removing objectionable copies of the same from the library. I would not say Gov. Holden removed them, for he is Governor, so called.

I never heard a man admit that he voted for Gov. Holden that he did not apologize for it by saying "Holden was not his choice, but he thought it best under the circumstances to do so." Some members of the Legislature recommended him to the President for a foreign mission, and some did it with the determination "that they would thus get rid of him." Now President Johnson can't give Gov. Holden any Federal appointment. Why? Because he asked "Who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?" Because he called upon Confederate authorities to drive unoffending mothers and their helpless children from their fatherless homes,—fatherless they were, because they would not join with the Standard in its treason. He will not, because Gov. H. called Andrew Johnson an East Tennessee traitor, who had been bought with a thousand dollars. He would not, because Gov. Holden called Andrew Johnson one of the most elegant devils out of perdition. Hear his own words: "Edward Everett is one of the most elegant devils out of perdition; behold the trio: Edward Everett, Andy Johnson and John C. Breckenridge." The President defended his veto in an able speech. Two able speeches could not defend his appointment of Gov. Holden and keep him in the White House. In the White House—in the sight of the Theatre, in the National Capital, where the blood of the martyred Chief Magistrate will forever cry out against Booth and Holden. Cries out against Booth for the assassination. Cries out against Holden, for crying out who would "plot for the head" of the Chief Magistrate of the nation! "Get rid of him," indeed, "by a foreign mission."—Twice have the people got rid of him, when he would be their Governor. No foreign mission to get rid of him. If the people will slay, let them bury their own dead, or else suffer and sicken from inhaling the stench which arises from bodies uninterred. P. E. C.

[We are not surprised at the forbearance of the Sentinel. It does not seek to damage a cotemporary by the use of personalities, believing that a course of forbearance is more effective. Our correspondent, however, thinks otherwise, and assumes all responsibility. If he and our neighbor desire to butt, let them go it; but we differ with both of them as "to the more excellent way."—EDS. SENTINEL.]

GENERAL NEWS.

The 22nd instant was the grand annual opening day with the principal millinery establishments. The most noticeable item which transpired on the occasion was that bonnets are now to be had at greatly reduced prices as compared with last year. The long veil is still to be worn for the face, and the small mask veil which was formerly used is now attached to the back of the bonnet, so as to fall over the coil of hair. There is no change of a very decided character in the style of arranging the hair. One of the new modes includes crimps, waves and short curls, passing around the head, with a band between each row of curls, the back hair being arraigned in a high waterfall or a coil. The gipsey bonnet will be worn this spring and summer, but there is in reality no decided novelties in any department of fashion.

During a rain storm, the President of a political convention, seeing a small number present, made the following speech:

"Thank God for rain! The more rain, the more corn; the more corn, the more whisky; and the more whisky, the more delegates."

Senator Sherman was announced as being on the stump in Connecticut, but since the administration meeting at Hartford, he is on the fence.

PARDONS GRANTED.—Very little is being done in the matter of pardons at the Attorney General's office, as the President is now granting but few, nearly all under the thirteenth exception. Yesterday, Mr. W. N. Edwards of North Carolina, was pardoned under the thirteenth, and Mr. Jas. T. V. Thompson, of Missouri, was pardoned under the twelfth exception. To-day Mrs. Laura Comer, of Georgia, and Mrs. H. B. Andrews, of Texas, were pardoned under the twenty thousand dollar clause. —Wash. Star of Saturday.

The enthusiaam of the Republicans on the announcement of the new scheme of the Senator from Nevada, has grown less and less day by day. They learn that Mr. Stewart's father-in-law is in Washington, and hence they suspect that, as to this matter, they have got their Foote in it. Very likely. Mr. Foote having represented almost every other State in the Union, has doubtless determined to be a member now from Massachusetts.

CABINET CHANGES.—It is rumored at Washington that Mr. Speed is about to retire from the Cabinet, and that Mr. Stansbury, of Ohio, will succeed him as Attorney General. We earnestly hope that the result will verify the rumor.—Any change in that Department will be for the better.

Mr. Dawson, of Georgia, will lecture in Baltimore next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Southern Fair.

Last Wednesday the Senate rejected Edmond Murphy, the Assessor of Internal Revenue at New Orleans, for the reason that he had dismissed from his office a clerk because of the latter's efforts in the cause of colored suffrage.

Chattanooga has voted $200,000 for a direct railroad to Cincinnati.

The Fenians of Nashville have appealed to the citizens thereof for arms and accoutrements.

The small pox continues to rage in Mobile, without any noticeable abatement.

The negroes at Lynchburg are getting up a petition for the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The Jackson Clarion says the negroes of Mississippi are beginning to realize the duty and happiness of work.

Pennsylvania is the only State, thus far, which has actually assumed the care of the children of her dead soldiers, and two thousand of these are now in school in that State. The cost per pupil is about $150 per annum, exclusive of clothing.

A ball is announced at Red Bluff, California, to raise funds to improve the graveyard.

"Ned Buntline" has proposed to raise 3,000 cavalry in New York in aid of the Fenians.

The American Pomological Society will hold its eleventh annual session at St. Louis on the 4th of September next.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE ENDORSING CONGRESS.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—The State Senate has passed resolutions endorsing the action of the majority in Congress, as against that of the President, by a vote of 23 to 21.

Dr. Marion Simms, formerly of Montgomery, Alabama, has won such fame in France and Great Britain as an accomplished surgeon, that the French Emperor has conferred upon him the Cross of the Legion of Honor. He spends his time between Paris and London, his family residing in the latter place.

The New Orleans Times asserts that there is sufficient labor or force in the State of Mississippi to produce three hundred thousand bales of cotton of four hundred and fifty pounds per bale.

IN OR OUT.—"We are, as long as Congress holds that States are out of the Union, enacting a lie. The reverse of this proposition was affirmed in 1861 by an almost unanimous vote of Congress. To maintain that position, the people gave up millions of treasure and rivers of blood. And now Congress, after the rebellion is conquered, stultifying its record, holds that the States which we insisted could not be taken out of the Union are out of it! Success would have converted the rebellion into a revolution. Then the rebellious States would have become an independent Confederacy. But defeat leaves the States in the Union and the Union intact." —N. Y. Times.

The man arrested as the guerilla desperado Quantrell has had an examination, and the result has failed to fully identify him. A quantity of Spanish coin found amongst his effects tended to strengthen the belief in his being the notorious guerilla, but Quantrell, it is said, was wounded in the arm and side, the scars of which are yet plainly visible. No traces of wounds, however, could be discovered on the man now in arrest, and he resolutely insists that his name is Hamilton.—Star.

The Raleigh Progress is becoming disloyal.—It calls deceased Confederate soldiers the gallant dead.—Petersburg Index.

WORSTED AND TWISTED.—An old author quaintly remarked: "Avoid argument with ladies. In spinning yarn among silks and satins, man is sure to be worsted and twisted. And when a man is worsted and twisted, he may consider himself wound up."

A formal, fashionable visitor thus addressed a little girl: "How are you, my dear?" "Very well, I thank you," she replied. The visitor then added: "Now, my dear, you should ask me how I am." The child simply and honestly replied, "I don't want to know."

M. R. Digsway, of Va., writes: "A dyspeptic acquaintance used the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, and found them so useful that since his removal to Missouri he has sent in an order for a gross of them. JOHNSTON COUNTY LAND FOR SALE.

I offer for sale the two tracts of land known as the Zack Hill place, three and a half miles from Boon Hill, and on the Road to Lowell Factory, containing in both 224 acres. The improvements are a log dwelling house, smoke house, and stables, and a good well of water. The land is desirable for cultivation, as it is immediately upon Little River, where can be found any amount of the richest loam; and also very valuable for its pine forest, only a small quantity of which has been boxed, and will yield a crop of Turpentine the present year.
A good bargain may be had, as the proprietor is disposed to sell it cheap for cash.

LANCASTER'S COTTON SEED PLANTER.

THE BEST MACHINE EVER INVENTED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Several hundred Sold in the Cotton growing counties in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia, in the three years preceding the war.

A NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION!

The Scarcity of Cotton Seed

Should induce every one intending to plant cotton the ensuing season, to use this machine. It embraces the following points, which are fully attested in the numerous testimonials given by those who used it in 1859—'60:

1st. Perfect Simplicity. The seed are carried out of the Hopper by a grooved cylinder—which cylinder is turned by two light wheels rolling upon the ground, has no cog wheels, bands, chains, or anything to get out of order, has an admirable furrow opener, into which furrow the Seed fall at a depth of one inch or less, and the furrow is covered up by a board cc verer, or roller, as the operator may prefer.

2d. It sows with great regularity and precision if the Seed are well rubbed, and in a very narrow furrow, rendering the chopping out and subsequent cultivation very easy work, compared with that which follows hand planting.

3d. It is a great saver of Seed, being able to secure a good stand with half the quantity of Seed usually required in hand planting, and this should be an important consideration.

4th. Its perfect adaption to negro management is its crowning excellence, and many of the testimonials refer to this very desirable feature.

5th. Its lightness, both to team and hand, and its cheapness, together with its simplicity in construction, rendering it easy of repair by any farm hand, are strong points in its favor, and are not combined in any other Cotton Planter known to the Inventor of this.

☞ Circulars giving full particulars, together with numerous testimonials from those who have thoroughly tested this machine, will be furnished upon application by mail or otherwise.

Full directions go with each machine, although the Planter is so simple as really not to require them. It may be necessary to say that this machine will sow rubbed seed only.

When more convenient to the purchaser, we will ship from NewYork, the freight from thence to Newbern and Wilmington, being about one dollar each by steamer. The freight per Railroad from Norfolk to Goldsboro, or Raleigh, is also about one dollar each. Persons living beyond these points can calculate for greater distances.

The Machines are sold at Thirty Dollars each, delivered on Vessel or Railroad, in Norfolk or New York, and Cash or Sight Drafts must accompany each order. Orders promptly filled for any number of machines.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.
The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:
Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an aperient medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.
Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best and there is for them, and they should have it.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

CLEBURNE.

[From the Dublin Nation.]

How far and fast the autumn blast
Bears the dead leaves o'er the ground:
As fast and far has the hand of war
Strewed our country's brave around!
And their nameless graves are the ocean's caves,
The forest and mountain glen,
Where the vulture screams as the angry streams
Are hiding the bones of men!
And what anguished cries
From the South arise,
For the brave ones fallen in vain?
While the victor North
Rings mans forth,
And exults in her broad domain!

As fire suppressed in Vesuvius' breast,
The latent fires of crime
In the human frame pulse on the same,
'Till fanned by the storms of time;
As the lava fold swept uncontrolled,
Where Pompeii's glories shone,
So the wakened rage of a Vandal age
When Freedom is o'erthrown!
And we'll look in tears
Though long, long years,
For the brightness shrouded o'er,
But the golden rays
Of her halcyon days
Shall return to the land no more!

Then fling the horde their base award—
Their chief his triumphal crown;
Place vile deceit in the judgment seat,
Where honor is trampled down;
Give a paltry bribe to the hired scribe,
To the venal bard his fee;
But him who draws in a righteous cause
A freeman's sword give me!
Though his bones should bleach,
On the sea-washed beach,
Though his grave be the lowly mound,
His name shall chime
Through the halls of time,
And swell through the deep profound!
Ye brave en masse, who fall and pass
To the leaden halls of death,
There are palms for the few, but, alas, for you,
Not a leaf from the victor's wreath!
But I sing of one whose glory shone
Like a meteor, bright and grand,
Who gave his name to the trump of fame,
And his blood to a generous land!
The festive toast,
The soldier's boast,
The type of a martial age!
The foe of wrong,
The soul of song,
And the light of a future page!

The base grow bold for power and gold,
The vain through fear of scorn;
The good wax strong in their hate of wrong;
But he was a warrior born.
From his eagle glance, and stern "Advance"
And his action, swift as thought,
The rank and file from his own isle fair
Their courage electric caught.
As the whirlwind's path
Shows it fiercest wrath
Through the lordliest forest pines,
So the deepest wave
Of the fallen brave
Told where Cleburne crossed their lines.

On Richmond's plain his captive train
Outnumbered the host he led.
And he was his stars on that field of Mars
Where the glorious Johnston bled!
'Twas his to save, while a ray of hope
Illum'd the fog—and then
'Twas his to die, while that "flag flew high"
In the van of chivalric men!
Nor a braver heart
Could Erin boast,
Nor than he a more gallant Knight,
Since the peerless Hugh
Crossed the Avon dhu,
And Bagnal's host affright.

There were eyes afar that watched your star,
As it rose with the "Southern Cross,"
There were hearts that bled when its course was sped,
And Old Ireland felt your loss!
While her flowers shall blow, or her waters flow
Through Shannon, Suir and Lee,
The patriot's song shall roll along
Their winding waves for thee!
And they'll tell with pride,
How Cleburne died*
In the land of the "free and the brave,"
How his sword of might
Was a beam of light,
Though it led to an exile's grave.

B.

*The name of Patrick Cleburne, Lieutenant General in the Confederate army, is one which should not be forgotten in the military annals of our race. He was the hero of over thirty pitched battles, and the number of minor actions in which he participated is beyond precedent. He was distinguished for decision and intrepidity, and almost every movement committed to his Division was successful. He received the incessant congratulations of the Southern press, and was several times complimented b the Confederate Congress. After the death of Jackson, he got the sobriquet of "The Stonewall of the South," for he was to the Army of the Tennessee, what Jackson was to that of Virginia; but most of all, he was tender and generous to the vanquished, and, as Ferguson says: "Kindly Irish of the Irish." He lies in a lonely grave in the village of Columbia, Tennessee, whither he was borne after the battle of Franklin by one of his officers. I know I have not done justice to his memory, but history will not consign his name to oblivion.—Biding her consideration, let the forgoing be a leaf let to his memory.

Anecdote of Nicholas Longworth.

Some eight or ten years ago the winter was very cold, the river was frozen, and all the "wharf-rats" in Rat row and elsewhere, along the river shore, were thrown out of work. A near relation of the old gentlemen came to the city, and passed the night at his house. After tea he sauntered to the office to take a quiet cigar. To his surprise he found it filled with a crowd—more than fifty—of brawny, beastly-looking men. The presence of the child-like old man, his face beaming with shrewdness and kindly humor, seemed alone to keep them from being a mob. His manner to them said—"You poor wretches, I know how reckless you are: yet I am not sure but I should be as bad, had I been exposed to the same bad influences." These houseless vagrants had been coming every night while the river was frozen, to get a dime for a night's lodging.

The young man had been forced, from the unpleasantness of the crowd, to go and enjoy his cigar outside. As he sat there, the ugly crowd filed out quietly, each with his dime (the clerk distributing,) till the last man. He seemed to feel very ill used, and was scarcely clear of the door-way before he gave vent to his indignation: "I'll be d——d if I don't let the old——know that I won't be put off with a five cent piece and a three cent piece! Let me catch him out, and I'll mash his ——" &c.

Glowing with righteous indignation, and glad of the opportunity, the young relative rushed in and exclaimed:

Mr. ——! I have had many occasions to remonstrate with you on your indiscriminate charities, your encouragement of beggary and vice. The wretch who went out last is breathing threats of personal violence against you, because he has been put off with a five cent piece and a three cent piece."

How was the indignant remonstrant mortified when the old man simply turned his head to the clerk and said:

"Mark, why did you not give that man his dime?"

"I had given out all the dimes, sir, and I gave him all I had left."

"See that he gets his extra two cent the next time he comes. I have no doubt I should have been mad, if I had been in his place."

"Where shall I get a panel?" said the sheriff to the judge. "Why I suppose, sir, that you can get enough panels out of doors."

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one-half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, also other pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,031,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 21, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.
In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

BONE MANURE.
WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and these engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.
We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufaced, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.
Messrs B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:
"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given unive sal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.
"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,
"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,
"No. 191 Water street, New York."
